SAGE N HARLEY

NYC, NY | (678) 579-2121 | snh362@nyu.edu

EDUCATION

New York University, College of Arts and Sciences, New York, NY   August 2019 – Present
Bachelor of Arts - Majors: Economics, Psychology, Data Science

Woodward Academy, Atlanta, GA   August 2015 – May 2019
Graduated with Honors Cumme Laude GPA 3.85

WORK EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant, Glimcher Lab NYU Langone Neuroscience Institute, New York, NY   September 2022 –- Present
- Helping administer psychometric and risk-ambiguity tests and taking urine and saliva samples to test opioid use participants
  - Measuring cognitive ability, cortisol levels and other possible factors
- Conducting analyses and data management and collection techniques
  - Utilizing MATLAB and R for data
- Attending weekly lab meetings and listening to graduate level discourse and discussion

Research Assistant, Researching Inequity in Society Ecologically (RISE) Lab, New York, NY   May 2022 –- Nov 2022
- Working in document review and analysis
  - Looking at legal documents, psychometric theories, and transcripts to understand youth intervention
- Managing and maintaining participant data and psychometric test data
  - Participant recruitment and scheduling
- Attending weekly lab meetings and learning more about youth incarceration and interventions

Research Assistant, Conceptual Development and Social Cognition (CDSC) Lab, New York, NY   August 2021 – Nov 2022
- Working with interference coding, data management, and analysis techniques
  - Using Python, R, Excel, and Datavyu
  - Practicing Multivariate regression methods and practices
- Building stimuli and survey apparatuses to be used in various projects
  - Utilizing Qualtrics, Keynote, and Powerpoint
- Won NYU DURF grant for proposal in conjunction with the lab
  - Received Wilfred L. and Ruth S.F. Peltz Research Scholar for strength of proposal
  - 1000$ undergraduate research grant award for being the recipient
  - Proposal titled "The Presence of Discrimination and Privilege in young Adolescents and Children"
- Interviewing participants and practicing literature review methods for future projects

Student Assistant, Monographs Department Bobst, New York, NY   May 2021 - August 2021
- Organized and categorized books based on genre, language, and type
  - Practiced language comprehension in French and utilizing it to categorize books correctly
- Used the Monographs ALEPH software to categorize books
- Categorized incoming packages and mail by location, vendor, and size

SKILLS & ACTIVITIES

Skills:
Computational: Excel, R, Statistical Modeling, Python, Bash, Git, Datavyu, Handbrake, Word, PowerPoint, Docs, Slides, Qualtrics
Languages: English (Native Speaker), French (Working Proficiency)